

THE LIBERAL HERALD

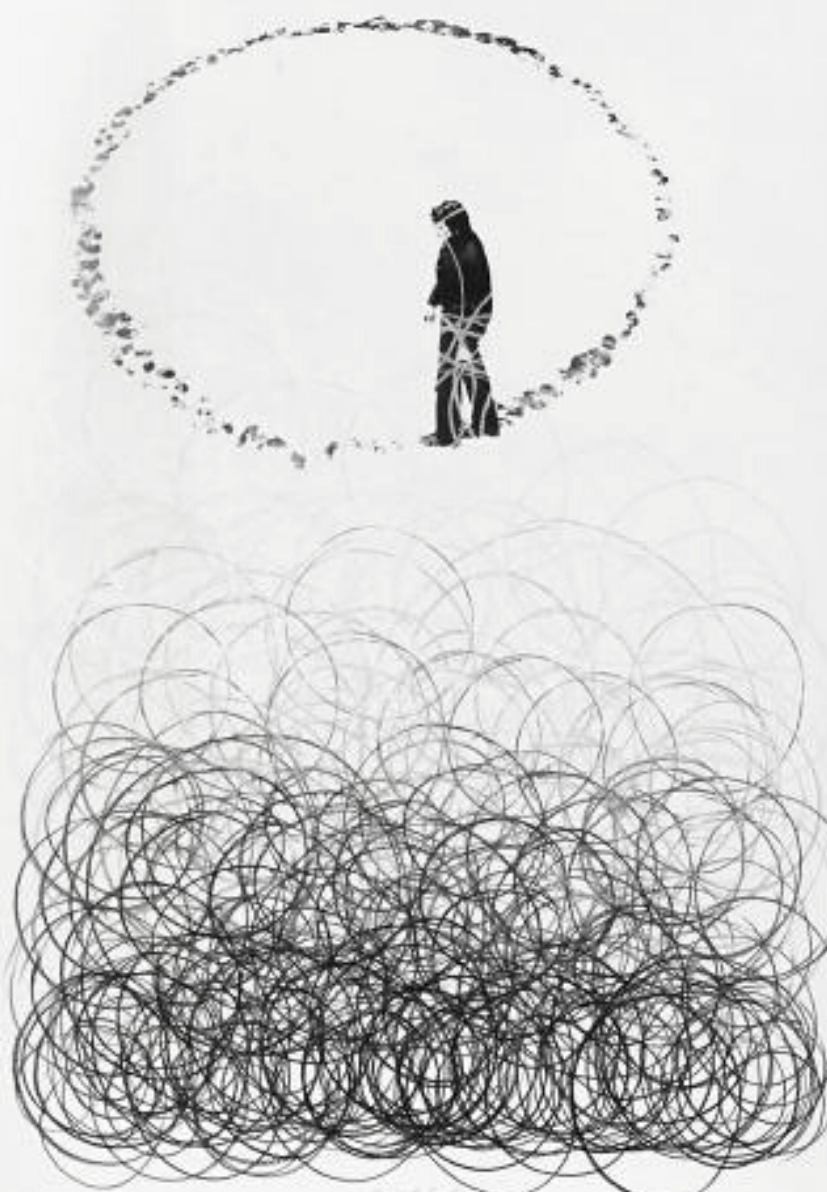

THE END OF AUTONOMY?

THE LIBERAL
HERALD

Michal Kern '20

Michal Kern photos: provided and approved by Dagmar Kusá

NOVEMBER 4-5. 2022

PROGRAM:

4.11.2022 FIRST DAY

Opening

9:15-9:30

Out Of Our Meaningful Control

Anna-Sophie Kloppe: 9:30-9:45

“Are You Seeing What I’m Seeing?”: Extended Reality Technologies, Gaslighting, and Political Manipulation – A Threat to Autonomy?

William Gopal: 9:45-10:00

L’autonomie de la désobéissance : le Droit de s’opposer à la Loi. Les racines de l’antiquité classique et du Moyen-âge dans le débat contemporain

Sébastien Milazzo and Marco Provenzano: 10:00-10:15

Discussion

10:15-10:35

Coffee Break

10:35-11:00

The Current Limitations of Everyday Autonomy; The Case of People with Disabilities

Lukáš Siegel: 11:00-11:15

“Good Mother, Good Breed”: Eugenic Concerns and Women’s Reproductive Autonomy in the Early Republican Era in Turkey

Necmiye Karakus and Faika Celik: 11:15-11:30

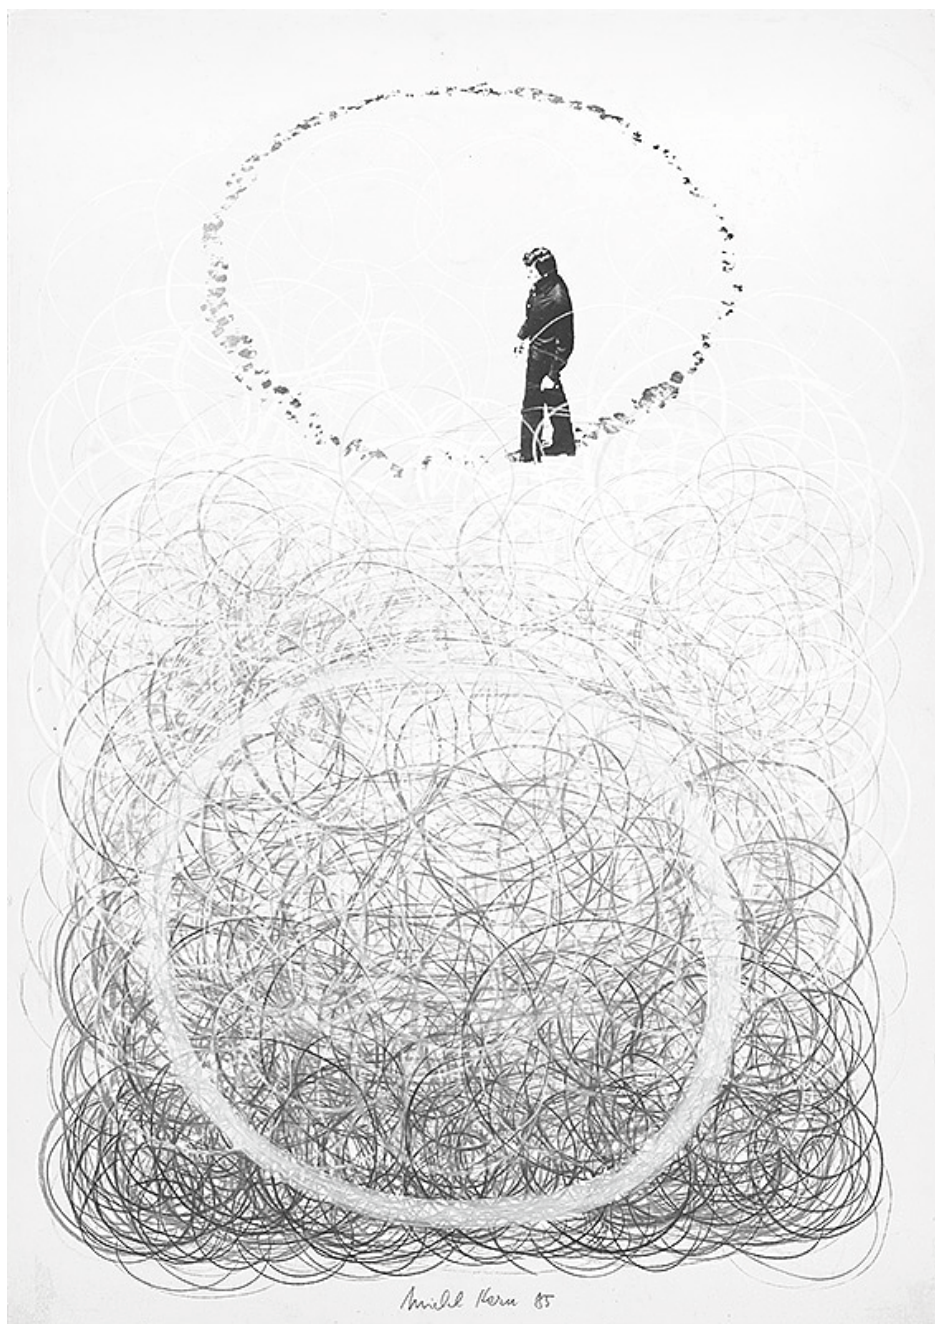

Free Will from the Viewpoint of Moral Development

Dila Özenç: 11:30-11:45

Discussion

11:45-12:10

MICHAL KERN

Michal Kern photo: provided and approved by Dagmar Kusá

PROGRAM:

Lunch Break

12:10-14:00

Twisted Obligatory Protection: An analysis on using the protection of culture as a reason to not adhere to moral and legal obligations in regard to human rights

Karlee Michelle Colby: 14:00-14:15

We have never been autonomous. Some remarks on the relation between autonomy and automation.

Maciej Bednarski: 14:15-14:30

Corporate State and Personal Autonomy. A Phenomenological Approach

Andrzej Gniazdowski: 14:30-14:45

Drawing Boundaries and Negotiating Relationships: Developing Transport-related Autonomy Rights

Bettina Lange: 14:45-15:00

A few problems with the pragmatic and neopragmatic approach to individual autonomy

Katarzyna Kremplewska: 15:00-15:15

Discussion

15:15-15:40

Coffee Break and walking from Bisla to Zichy Palace

15:40-16:30

Keynote Speakers

Johann Michel (University of Poitiers, EHESS-Paris) and Sophie Vlacos (University of Glasgow): 16:30-19:00

Reception 19:00

PROGRAM:

5.11.2022 SECOND DAY

Identity, Technology, Autonomy, and Democracy

Alex Nemec: 9:30-9:45

Society of Control in the Age of Surveillance Capitalism

Elvis Takahashi Mantello: 9:45-10:00

Limits and Value of Personal Autonomy in Impersonal World: A Stoic Perspective

Dominik Novosad: 10:00-10:15

Absurd rebels against Covid

Dominik Kulcsár: 10:15-10:30

Discussion

10:15-10:30

Coffee Break

10:45-11:00

AI and Deconstruction

Alzbeta Kuchtova: 11:00-11:15

Keynote Speaker

James Griffith: 11:15-11:40

Ryle on Voluntary Actions: A Dispositional Explanation Model

Jana Baum: 11:40-11:55

Discussion

11:55-12:015

Lunch Break

12:15-14:00

MICHAL KERN

Michal Kern photo: provided and approved by Dagmar Kusá

PROGRAM:

Lunch Break

12:20-14:00

Agonistic Democracy, Personal Autonomy and Post-foundational Society

Rafal Smoczyński: 14:00-14:15

Self-Determining Animals – Human Nature and Relational Autonomy in Hegel's Concept of Species Being

León Antonio Heim: 14:15-14:30

Autonomy and Revolutionary Experience: A Phenomenological Sketch

Michal Lipták: 14:30-14:45

Discussion

14:45-15:10

Coffee Break

15:10-15:45

Conclusion

15:45-16:00

Conference Venue:

BISLA - Bratislava International School of Liberal Arts, Grösslingová 2469/53, Bratislava, Slovakia

The conference is supported by the grant agency APVV within the project Philosophical Anthropology in the Context of Current Crises of Symbolic Structures, APVV-20-0137.

LH

THE LIBERAL
HERALD